

EXTERNAL RESOURCES ON DISASTERS AND CONFLICT

The following list presents some of the key resources published by other agencies on working in a disasters and conflict context.

Conflict Analysis and Conflict Sensitivity

World Vision's Making Sense of Turbulent Contexts - Conflict Analysis Tool

This is a comprehensive conflict analysis tool and workshop guide, to facilitate practitioners to gain a detailed understanding of the context in which they are working and the dynamics of the conflict.

Saferworld Guide to Conflict Sensitivity

This guide will help ensure that when designing and implementing a project, you are able to analyse and consider the impact of your project on the conflict context and ensure you "Do No Harm".

Research papers on DRR

Overseas Development Institute Research papers on Disaster Risk Reduction in contexts of violence conflict

Read this report to find out more on why Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR) activities must be pursued in conflict-affected states.

The next frontier for DRR: Disasters in FCAS

ODI's 2017 report provides a solid examination of the challenges of pursuing DRR in conflict-affected states and why there continues to be a hesitancy engaging with DRR in these contexts.

Reports on specific conflict-settings

Protracted Conflict and Humanitarian Action

This report by ICRC in 2016 provides an overview of ICRC's experiences in protracted conflict settings. Key messages include reviewing the evolution of modern day conflict which now affects many middle income countries as well as low income countries.

The relationships between food security and violent conflicts: The case of Colombia

An FAO 2017 paper examines the impact of violent territorial control (as a key element of the internal conflict) in Colombia and the consequent forced displacement and food insecurity.

Underlying tensions: South Sudanese refugees and pathways to conflict prevention in the Democratic Republic of Congo

A 2017 report by Conciliation Resources on the simmering tensions between host and refugee populations and how to ensure humanitarian response is well designed and doesn't exacerbate tensions or create additional conflict.

Congo: A decades-long cycle of war

IRIN have curated several in-depth reports examining the conflict in DRC. These reports provide a challenging oversight of the growing humanitarian needs against the backdrop of an expanding and complex conflict.

Partnerships in Conflict: How violent conflict impacts local civil society and how international partners respond

This 2017 Oxfam report examines the critical role Civil Society Organisations (CSOs) play in violent conflict affected states and asks the question why INGOs are not doing more to support them.